

FOR YOUR INFORMATION No. 247

Derechos de la mujer Women's Rights

Webliografía
03/06

DERECHOS DE LA MUJER

Chronology of the Equal Rights Amendment, 1923-1996

<http://now.org/issues/economic/cea/history.html>

The Day the Suffrage Battle Was Won

http://womenshistory.about.com/od/suffrage1900/a/august_26_wed.htm

Finally, the long battle for the vote for women was won when a young legislator voted as his mother urged him to vote.

One hundred Years toward Suffrage: an Overview

<http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/naw/nawstime.html>

Online Dialogue Highlights U.S. Commitment to Women's Rights

<http://usinfo.state.gov/dhr/Archive/2005/Dec/19-355187.html>

Mes de la historia de la mujer

Este documento lo puede pedir en español al Centro de Recursos Informativos al correo electrónico OutreachB@state.gov

The Story of the National Women's History Month

http://www.nwhp.org/whm/2006/whm_history.html

Este documento lo puede pedir en español al Centro de Recursos Informativos con el nombre de Cuando y como surge el mes nacional de la historia de la mujer, al correo electrónico OutreachB@state.gov

Votes for Women

<http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/naw/nawshome.html>

The NAWSA Collection consists of 167 books, pamphlets and other artifacts documenting the suffrage campaign. They are a subset of the Library's larger collection donated by Carrie Chapman Catt, longtime president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, in November of 1938. The collection includes works from the libraries of other members and officers of the organization including: Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, Lucy Stone, Alice Stone Blackwell, Julia Ward Howe, Elizabeth Smith Miller, Mary A. Livermore.

Women: Builders of Communities and Dreams

<http://www.nwhp.org/whm/themes/themes.html>

The theme honors women for bringing communities together and restoring hope in the face of impossible odds. Community comes in many forms, and dreams change, expand, and are sometimes fulfilled.

(Este documento lo puede pedir en español al Centro de Recursos Informativos con el nombre de Mujeres: creadoras de comunidades y sueños, al correo electrónico OutreachB@state.gov)

Women Come to the Front: Journalist, Photographers and Broadcasters during the World War II

<http://www.loc.gov/exhibits/wcf/wcf0001.html>

Women Come to the Front: Journalist, Photographers and Broadcasters during the World War II (War, Women and Opportunity)

<http://www.loc.gov/exhibits/wcf/wcf0002.html>

Women's History in America

<http://www.wic.org/misc/history.htm>

Throughout most of history women generally have had fewer legal rights and career opportunities than men. Wifehood and motherhood were regarded as women's most significant professions. In the 20th century, however, women in most nations won the right to vote and increased their educational and job opportunities. Perhaps most important, they fought for and to a large degree accomplished a reevaluation of traditional views of their role in society.

Women Votes: Making History

<http://69.20.85.216/do/women-vote/>

Our voter mobilization strategy is built on four pillars: targeting, research, communication, and contact.

ORGANIZATIONS / ORGANIZACIONES

ALAI Mujeres

<http://alainet.org/mujeres>

Para contribuir al desarrollo de una cultura democrática y participativa, basada en la igualdad entre los géneros, ALAI cuenta con un programa internacional, dedicado específicamente a fortalecer el avance organizativo y reivindicativo de los movimientos y redes de mujeres, a través del desarrollo de los procesos comunicativos.

AAUP-Women in High Education

<http://www.aaup.org/Issues/WomeninHE/>

The mission of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP) is to advance academic freedom and shared governance, to define fundamental professional values and standards for higher education, and to ensure higher education's contribution to the common good. Founded in 1915, the AAUP has helped to shape American higher education by developing the standards and procedures that maintain quality in education and academic freedom in this country's colleges and universities.

American Association of University Women

<http://www.aauw.org>

Graduates of regionally accredited colleges, universities, and two-year community colleges. Advocates educational equity for women and girls. Engages in research and lobbying. Supports local branches involved in community action projects to foster vocation for girls.

Center for Research on Women and Social Justice

<http://www.womst.ucsb.edu/projects/crwsj>

The Center approaches the study of women in cultural and society from an inter-disciplinary and multicultural perspective, inquiring into the lives of women and men, the impact of cultural notions of gender on society, and the ways race, ethnicity, class, sexuality, age, and other factors impact on work, family, and democracy.

Center for Women Policy Studies

www.centerwomenpolicy.org

Policy and advocacy organization concerned with women's issues, including educational and employment equity for women, women and AIDS, violence against women, economic opportunity for low-income women, women's health, and reproductive laws.

Coalition of Labor Union Women

<http://www.cluw.org>

The Coalition of Labor Union Women is America's only national organization for union women. Formed in 1974, CLUW is a nonpartisan organization within the union movement. The primary mission of CLUW is to unify all union women in a viable organization to determine our common problems and concerns and to develop action programs within the framework of our unions to deal effectively with our objectives.

Eagle Forum

<http://www.eagleforum.org/>

Feminist Majority Foundation

<http://www.feminist.org/welcome/index.html>

The Feminist Majority Foundation (FMF), which was founded in 1987, is a cutting edge organization dedicated to women's equality, reproductive health, and non-violence. In all spheres, FMF utilizes research and action to empower women economically, socially, and politically. Our organization believes that feminists - both women and men, girls and boys - are the majority, but this majority must be empowered.

Global Fund for Women

<http://www.globalfundforwomen.org>

The Global Fund for Women, an international network of women and men committed to a world of equality and social justice, advocates for and defends women's human rights by making grants to support women's groups around the world.

HRSA Women's Health

<http://www.hrsa.gov/womenshealth/>

The Office of Women's Health coordinates the programs concerning women's health issues that are conducted throughout the HHS Health Resources and Services Administration. Major section of the site are Funding, Publications, Contacts, News and Events, and Links.

Independent Women's Forum (IWF)

www.iwf.org

Membership women and men interested in promoting individual responsibility, strong families, freedom and opportunity. Conducts litigation; publishes periodical and media directory; maintains speakers bureau. Monitors legislation and regulations.

Institute for Women's Policy Research

<http://www.wic.org/>

The institute conducts rigorous research and disseminates its findings to address the needs of women, promote public dialogue, and strengthen families and communities and societies.

International Women's Day 2006

<http://www.internationalwomensday.com/>

International Women's Day is the universal day that connects all women around the world and inspires them to achieve their full potential. IWD 2006 launches another year of working progressively for women's equality worldwide. It is an important day around the world because the collective power of women is witnessed by millions, and the brave achievements of women past, present and future are respectfully honored. International Women's Day 2006 will be celebrated globally on Wednesday 8 March.

National Association of Women Judges

<http://www.nawj.org>

Individuals holding judicial or quasi-judicial positions and those who support the administration of justice. Objectives are to promote the administration of justice; increase the number of women judges so that the judiciary more appropriately reflects the role of women in a democratic society; address other issues particularly affecting women in the legal system. Conducts research and educational programs.

National Council for Research on Women

<http://www.ncrw.org>

National network of organizations representing the academic community, policymakers, and other interested in women's issues. Works to bring institutional resources to bear on feminist research, policy analysis, and educational programs addressing legal, economic, and social inequities. Promotes collaborative research on issues affecting women.

National Organization for Women

www.now.org

Membership women and men interested in civil rights for women. Works to end discrimination based on gender.

National Partnership for Women and Families

www.nationalpartnership.org

Advocacy organization that promotes fairness in the workplace, quality health care, and policies that help women and men meet the demands of work and family. Publishes and disseminates information in print and on the Web to heighten awareness of work and family issues. Monitors legislative activity and argues on behalf of family issues before Congress and the courts.

National Women's Hall of Fame

<http://www.greatwomen.org>

In 1969, a group of women and men of Seneca Falls created the National Women's Hall of Fame, believing that the contribution of American women deserved a permanent home in the small village where it all began. The Hall is home to exhibits, artifacts of historical interest, a research library and office.

National Women's History Museum

<http://www.nwhm.org>

American women have been pioneers and partners in the fields of science, medicine, government, law, education, social service, literature, philanthropy, the arts, sports, business, and in the nurture of family and community from before our nation was founded.

National Women's Law Center

www.nwlc.org

Works to expand and protect women's legal rights through advocacy and public education. Interests include reproductive rights, health, education, employment, income security, and family support.

Older Women's League

www.owl-national.org

Grassroots organization concerned with the social and economic problems of middle-aged and older women. Interests include health care, Social Security, pension rights, housing, employment, women as caregivers, effects of budget cuts, and issues relating to death and dying.

Online Women's Business Center

<http://www.onlinewbc.gov>

This site sponsored by the Small Business Administration, is designed to provide information for women in business topics such as how to start your business and how to operate in the global market place. Information includes News, a directory of Women's Business Centers, a database of Local Services, Business Basics, Networking, a list of Hot Topics, and links to Major Partners. The Business Basics section features resources such as starting your own business, financing your own business, running your own business, and more. Some information is available in Spanish, Japanese, Russian, and Arabic.

Social Security Online for Women

<http://www.ssa.gov/women/>

This site provides Social Security Program information on retirement, survivors, disability, and supplemental Security Income benefits relevant to women. It offers seven main categories that correspond to various life stages of women: Working Woman, Beneficiary, Bride, New Mother, Divorced Spouse, Caregiver, and Widow. There is a link to additional federal Web sites that are of interest to women, such as the Department of Health and Human Services Women's Health Web site, Health Care Financing Administration's Children's Health Insurance Program, and the Small Business Administration's Online Women's Business Center.

The National American Woman Suffrage Association

<http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/naw/nawsa.html>

Formed in 1890, NAWSA was the result of a merger between two rival factions--the National Woman Suffrage Association (NWSA) led by Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony, and the American Woman Suffrage Association (AWSA), led by Lucy Stone, Henry Blackwell, and Julia Ward Howe.

United Nations Development Fund for Women

<http://www.un.org/popin/programmes/unifem.html>

The Fund's purpose is to support the efforts of women in the developing world to achieve their objectives for economic and social development and for equality and, by doing so, to improve the quality of life for all. The Fund works in three key program areas of strategic importance to women: Agriculture, Trade and Industry, and Macro Policy and National Planning. Initiatives here are complemented by technical support for credit, technology transfer, small business development, and training.

Violence Against Women Office

<http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/vawo/>

Established as a source for assistance to women victims of violence, this site includes a variety of section such as State-by-State Grant Activities, Information About Sexual Assault, What Communities Can Do, and Federal Violence-Against-Women Laws and Regulations. The site brings together links to Justice Department publications and statistics on the topic, and also links to each state agency that administers the office's formula grants.

Wider Opportunities for Women

www.wowonline.org

Promotes equal employment opportunities for women through equal access to jobs and training, equal incomes, and an equitable workplace. Monitors public policy relating to jobs, affirmative action, vocational education, training opportunities, and welfare reform.

Women in Community Service

www.wics.org

Seeks to reduce the number of women living in poverty by promoting self-reliance and economic independence. Interests include job training and welfare reform. Holds contract with Labor Department for outreach, support service, and job placement for the Job Corps. Sponsors the Lifeskills Program to assist at-risk women in such areas as job training and money management.

Women in Government

www.womeningovernment.org

Seeks to enhance the leadership role of women policymakers by providing issue education and leadership training. Sponsors seminars and conducts educational research.

Women in Government Relations

www.wgr.org

Professionals in business, trade associations, and government whose jobs involve governmental relations at the federal, state, or local level. Serves as a forum for exchange of information among members.

Women in International Security

<http://wiis.georgetown.edu>

Seeks to advance women in the field of international relations. Maintains a database of women foreign and defense policy specialists worldwide; organizes conferences in Europe, the former Soviet Union and Asia; disseminates information on jobs, internships, and fellowships for women in international affairs.

Women in the United States

http://usinfo.state.gov/scv/history_geography_and_population/population_and_diversity/women_in_the_us.html

President Bush Proclaims Women's History Month, 2005.

During Women's History Month, we celebrate the achievements of our Nation's women. For generations, American women have helped build our great Nation through their leadership as writers, teachers, artists, politicians, doctors, and scientists, and in other professions. As mothers, daughters, and sisters, women have supported and strengthened American families and communities. Women are at the forefront of entrepreneurship in America, creating millions of new jobs and helping build our Nation's economic prosperity.

Women Legislators' Lobby

www.wand.org

Bipartisan group for women state legislators. Sponsors conferences, training workshops, issue briefings, and seminars; provides information and action alerts on ways federal policies affect states. Interests include violence against women and children, federal budget priorities, national security, and arms control.

Women Work

www.womenwork.org

Fosters the development of programs and services for former homemakers reentering the job market and provides information about public policy issues that affect displaced homemakers and single parents. Refers individual to local services. Monitors legislation.

Women's Bureau

<http://www.dol.gov/wb/welcome.html>

The Labor Department of Women's Bureau features news of its initiatives on its Web site. Current programs include Women in High Tech Jobs, Women in Apprenticeship and Nontraditional Occupations Act, and On-line Distance Learning. Its Publication section has fact sheets and reports, and the Statistics section has data on the leading occupations of employed women with comparisons to men's employment and pay in those occupations.

Women's Foreign Policy Group

www.wfpg.org

Promotes the leadership for women in international affairs professions. Conducts policy programs, mentoring, and research.

Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press

www.wifp.org

Operates as a national and international network of media women and media-concerned women, as well as men. Publishes the Directory of Women's Media, a series of media democracy, and voices for Media Democracy, a newsletter.

Women's International Center

<http://www.wic.org/>

To Acknowledge, Honor and Encourage Women. To celebrate women and their positive, enduring contributions to humanity through the Living Legacy Awards. Since 1984, WIC has brought the world together to praise and honor women at the annual gala event held in San Diego, California.

WomenBiz.gov

<http://www.womenbiz.gov>

This government gateway pulls together information for women-owned businesses intending to sell products and services to the federal government. The sections of the site include Meeting the Basics, Finding Your Market, Getting Started, Finding Business Opps, and Key Contacts. The site also provides links to related federal agencies.

YWCA USA

<http://www.ywca.org/site/pp.asp?c=djISI6PIKpG&b=284783>

The YWCA USA is a women's membership movement nourished by its roots in the Christian faith and sustained by the richness of many beliefs and values. The YWCA is the oldest and largest multicultural women's organization in the world.

DOCUMENTS/ DOCUMENTOS

Women of Influence

Abigail Smith Adams

Remember the ladies...

<http://usinfo.state.gov/products/pubs/womeninfln/adams.htm>

Anne Marbury Hutchinson

Courageous Exponent of the Civil Liberty and Religious Toleration

<http://usinfo.state.gov/products/pubs/womeninfln/hutchinson.htm>

Deborah Samson

She enlisted for the whole term of the war as Robert Shirtliffe and served in a company.

<http://userpages.aug.com/captbarb/femvets.html>

Elizabeth Cady Statnton

Activist for women's rights.

<http://www.mtholyoke.edu/marylyon/>

Harriet Tubman

Leader of the Underground Railroad

<http://usinfo.state.gov/products/pubs/womeninfln/tubman.htm>

Hattie Ophelia Wyatt Caraway

First Woman Elected to U.S. Senate

<http://usinfo.state.gov/products/pubs/womeninfln/caraway.htm>

Jeannette Pickering Rankin

First Woman Member of the U.S. Congress

<http://usinfo.state.gov/products/pubs/womeninfln/rankin.htm>

Margaret Corbin

The first American Woman to take a soldier's part in the War for Liberty

<http://usinfo.state.gov/products/pubs/womeninfln/corbin.htm>

Mary Lyon

Women who founded the worldwide model of higher education for women

<http://www.mtholyoke.edu/marylyon/>

Nancy Morgan

A dedicated patriot.

<http://userpages.aug.com/captbarb/femvets.html>

Sojourner Truth

Antislavery Activist , Advocate of Women's Rights

<http://usinfo.state.gov/products/pubs/womeninfln/truth.htm>

American Women

Guide to women's history resources published

<http://www.loc.gov/loc/lcib/0201/herstory.html>

ARTICLES/ ARTÍCULOS

Bandler, Michael J. "The Roads Taken: Contemporary Women's Voices."

U.S. Society and Values, Vol. 2, No. 2 (June, 1997)

<http://usinfo.state.gov/journals/itsv/0597/ijse/roads.htm>

Butler, Twiss & McKenzie, Paula. "21st Century Equal Rights Amendment Effort Begins." National Organization for Woman, (January, 1994)

Cotter, Holland. "Through Women's Eyes, Finally." The New York Times Magazine, (1999)
<http://www.nytimes.com/library/magazine/millennium/m2/cotter.html>

Eisler, Riane & Kissling, Frances. "The American Family: Building a Foundation for Real Democracy and Freedom." Center for American Progress (July 1, 2005)
<http://www.americanprogress.org/site/pp.asp?c=biJRJ8OVF&b=865469>

Ellsberg, Mary & Heise, Lori. "Domestic Violence: a Global Health Priority." Center for American Progress (October 18, 2004)
<http://www.americanprogress.org/site/pp.asp?c=biJRJ8OVF&b=224093>

Falter-Barns, Suzanne. "Balancing Agendas: Work, Family and the Law." U.S. Society and Values, Vol. 2, No. 2 (June, 1979)
<http://usinfo.state.gov/journals/itsv/0597/ijse/suzanne.htm>

Gruening, Martha. "Two Suffrage Movements." The Crisis, Vol. 4 (September, 1912), pp.245-247
http://womenshistory.about.com/library/etext/bl_crisis_1912b.htm

Harrison, Cynthia. "From the Home to the House: the Changing Role of Women in American Society." U.S. Society and Values, Vol. 2, No. 2 (June, 1997)
<http://usinfo.state.gov/journals/itsv/0597/ijse/kitch.htm>

Hessini, Leila. "Against the Grain: U.S. Abortion Policy from a Global Perspective." Center for American Progress (January 20, 2006)
<http://www.americanprogress.org/site/pp.asp?c=biJRJ8OVF&b=1363923>

Hubbard, Ben. "A New Progressive Majority." Center for American Progress (November 19, 2006)
<http://www.americanprogress.org/site/pp.asp?c=biJRJ8OVF&b=254517>

Perez, Tom. "The Civil Rights Act 40 Years Later: Is the Glass Half Full or Half Empty?" Center for American Progress (July 2, 2004)
<http://www.americanprogress.org/site/pp.asp?c=biJRJ8OVF&b=106855>

Rivera, J.D., Lourdes A. "Medicaid: Supporting Women's Health, Fighting for Its Life." Center for American Progress (March 15, 2005)
<http://www.americanprogress.org/site/pp.asp?c=biJRJ8OVF&b=466045>

Roth, Rachel. "Reproductive Rights in Theory and Practice: The Meaning of Roe v. Wade for Women in Prison." Center for American Progress
(January 20, 2006)
<http://www.americanprogress.org/site/pp.asp?c=biJRJ8OVF&b=1363953>

Centro de Recursos Informativos
Bogotá, Colombia
Tel: (571) 315-2131
Fax: (571) 315-2208
<http://bogota.usembassy.gov>
e-mail: webB@state.gov

El Centro de Recursos Informativos (IRC por sus siglas en inglés: Information Resources Center), establecido para apoyar los programas de la Embajada de Estados Unidos de América, brinda información actualizada sobre Estados Unidos en las áreas de interés bilateral, como son: economía y comercio, corrupción, lavado de dinero, democracia y derechos humanos, drogas y narcotráfico, extradición, propiedad intelectual, terrorismo, ambiente. Por medio de la página en la internet, se ofrece acceso a legislación, política exterior, a miles de oficinas del gobierno y otras instituciones estadounidenses. Nuestro público se compone de oficinas gubernamentales, medios de comunicación, académicos, profesionales, investigadores y organizaciones no gubernamentales. Le invitamos a visitar estos sitios en la Internet, y solicitarnos los artículos que le interesen.